Zoom Control

The Zoom controls allows selecting the zoom level. Click on + or - to may use the mouse wheel.

Object number

This control aû ects the number of shown objects. A higher value show have been shown only at a higher zoom level and vice versa. The valu and minus three.

Search û eld

Enter the location you're searching for and hit the 'Enter' key. You se choose from with the mouse. For convenience there's the possibility to (select 'Keep open').

Load GPX

There's the possibility to load a local GPX track or waypoint file to be
Load GPX

Scale

Shows the map scale in kilometers (km) and miles (mi).

Coordinates

Show Zoom level and geographical coordinates (lon/lat) of the mouse

Buttons

Home: Links back to the main page.

Info: Opens up the legend of historical objects displayed on the map.

Copyright: Gives copyright and source information for all kinds of laye

Facebook: Links to the Historic.Place facebook group. You need to hav the group content. You need to become a group member to be able to

News: Pops up the latest news about Historic.Place. Links to the total

Save: Saves the current location, zoom and layer information in a coo map through clicking on the globe on the main page (not on the globe you will start at the very position.

Globe: Opens up the layer of historical maps available for the current shortly turns red or green upon zooming or panning if the number of a decreases or increases. The number itself is shown as a tooltip.

Language selection: Open the language selection dialog box. Click on favorite language. The area shown will be roughly adapted to the corr speakers. The û ag with the question mark links to the translation page on how to add a new language.

Question mark: This help.

Layer Changer

The + on gray background is maybe the most important control as it op layers and controls.

The + and - buttons control opacity. Minus means more transparent, P covers underlying layers).

Base map

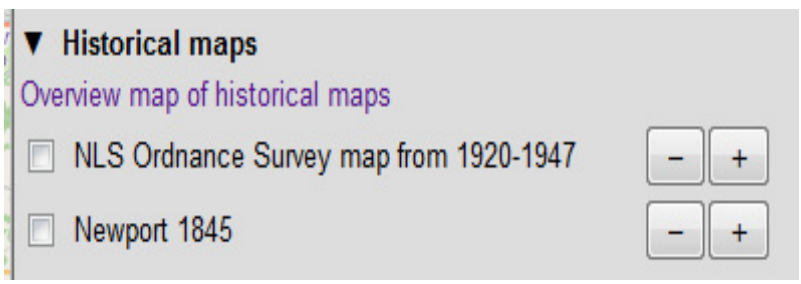

The base map is the background map style, it defaults to the classic C
Select to your convenience. Only one base map can be selected at a t

Historical Maps

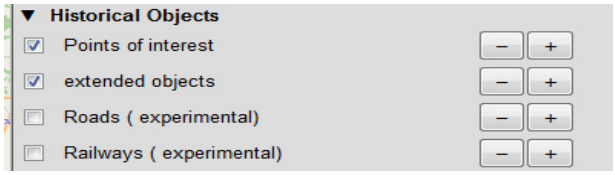

An increasing number of historical maps is available as overlays. The current map area. Only historical layers that are visible in the current changer. The link Overview map of historical maps opens up a new w available in a graphical representation.

Historical Objects

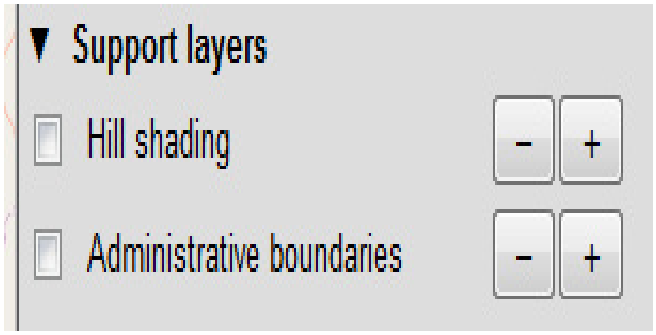

You may select which type of objects should be shown. Default is Poin objects (line and area objects). There are some mutually exclusive exp roads, railways or boundaries. These are subject to change without fu

Support Layers

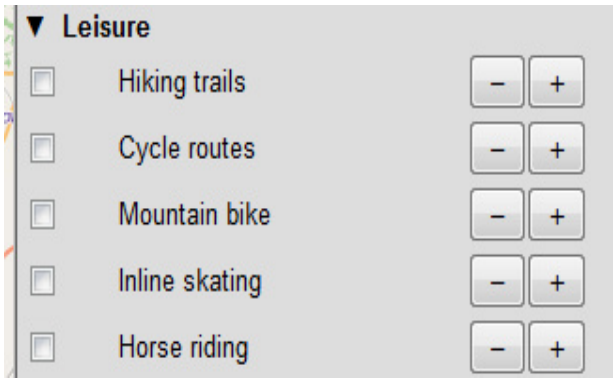

Some support layers are available like hill shading or administrative b

Leisure

Special layers with routes for hiking, cycling, mountain biking, inline oû ered.

Controls

Some additional controls are oû ered that may be switched on or oû .

User Tiles

Under UserTiles, tile layers can be inserted. Example: http://warper.wmû abs.org/maps/tile/1519/%7Bz%7D/%7Bx%7D/%7By%7D

Attribution

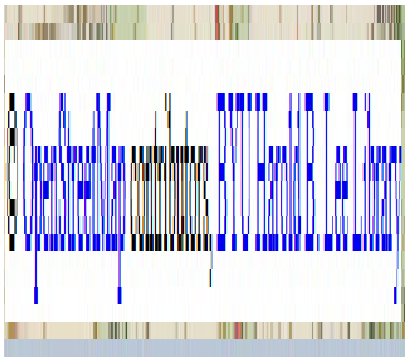

The attribution control gives copyright, source or courtesy information the lower left part of the map and it's on by default.

Measuring tool

The measuring tool allows to determine the length of a path that may l map. It can also be activated through clicking F9 key. The length is sh above the attribution. The ESC key clears the current path. Clicking o small tutorial and also oû ers the option to download the path in sever German).
Video-Distance measurement

Routing tool

It works similar to the measuring tool and can also be activated throug some points by which the route must pass. Clicking on the info û eld (l tutorial and the option to download the route (currently only in Germa OSRM routing engine. Only car routing is supported currently.
Video-OSRM-Routing

Zoom to current position

Tries to û nd out where you are and zooms there. Depends on your env whether this is possible.

Compass

A compass rose can be drawn to make it easier to estimate directions.

Names

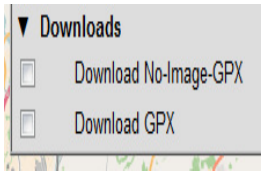

If activated, historical objects are not only shown by symbol but also

References to foreign maps

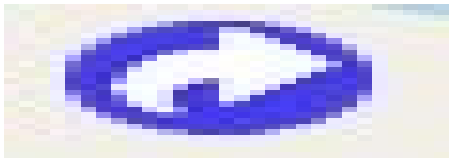

Links to some other maps or web sites we thought potentially useful. T the same viewport as Historic.Place.

Edit objects

Tries to open up the corresponding map editor to edit the current obje tools' documentation for further information.

Downloads

It gives the possibility to download visible items ('Download GPX') and (Download No-Image-GPX) in GPX format.

Permalink

The permalink links the current map state including area, zoom, layer similar way as the save cookie button). Right-Clicking it with the mous gives you the possibility to send a link to your very map position to so

Other controls

The map may be panned by grabbing it with the mouse and moving. Th zooming. Holding the shift key and drawing a rectangle with the mouse good as possible).

Marker

Holding Alt or Shift-Alt and clicking to the map sets a marker. The ma mouse. Holding Alt or Shift-Alt and clicking the marker again removes marker can be set at the same time. Markers are included in the perma

From:
http://gk.historic.place/ Historic.Place Wiki

Permanent link:
http://gk.historic.place/doku.php?id=en:help-en&rev=1674309849

Last update: 2023/01/21 14:24